

Internship in Photler

Photler is a startup based in Poznań, Poland. Now we are looking for students to take part in the internship programme in the area of sales and marketing. That's a great opportunity to gain practical knowledge and skills that might be interesting for the students from your university.

There is a short description of the offer below that you can share:

Internship in Photler

Duration:

3 months

Commitment:

Full-time

Description:

The Photler company is looking for trainees and interns to work in the international business within the Erasmus+programme. What is the easiest way to describe Photler? Travel, photography and web design. Photler is a tool for building beautiful websites, especially dedicated for photographers and travellers. We are an internal start-up of a large interactive agency and our practice are free.

We are looking for young and ambitious students who want to gain experience in:

- Marketing -social media services, advertising campaigns, content marketing, new media marketing.
- Sales -customer contact, B2B and B2C communication, sales strategies, communication with potential partners.
- Computer graphics -design, UX design, advertising design, pitchdeckdesign and presentation.

What do we offer?

- Opportunity to gain real experience in international business.
- Possibility of development and promotion.
- Choose flexible working hours to match your lifestyle.
- Laid-backwork atmosphere, where business people work together everyday.
- A recommendation written by the company's president.

DURATION, PERIOD, COMMITMENT IS FLEXIBLE

Compensation: No financial compensation

Contact: martynal@photler.com

<https://photler.com/>